

Production Planner

Juicy Isle is a Tasmanian owned beverage manufacturer and has carved a niche in the production and distribution of juice, water and carbonated beverages.

Whilst experience in a similar role is not necessary, we are looking for an individual who can demonstrate they have the following skills;

- Highly organised with excellent attention to detail.
- Strong negotiation skills
- Good with numbers and proficient with computers (including Microsoft Excel).
- Able to build rapport and maintain relationships.
- Looking for a challenging role that will keep them busy.

Primary duties and responsibilities will include;

- Planning of production schedules.
- Purchasing, receipting in, and managing raw material levels.
- Negotiating raw material pricing with suppliers.
- General office duties requiring proficient use of Microsoft Office.

Please send your application addressing the skill requirements of the role to Michael Goward at goward@juicyisle.com.au. Applications close 19 January 2012. Salary will be negotiated on skills and experience.
